

MAJOR RULE CHANGES

AS OF JANUARY 1, 2016

- 1. Show Pleasure class has been moved from pleasure division to performance division.
(You can show a Show Pleasure horse in any class as long as it meets the requirements of that class and then go back in a show pleasure class)
- 2. Ladies can show a stallion in any ladies class.
(Not just in a specialty class)
- 3. There are no Novice Horse classes. There is a Novice Rider class that states no rider to have won a blue ribbon in the past 3 show seasons in that divisions to date.
(Exception Novice Class or One Rider to Judge Class)
- 4. With a pleasure horse, you are allowed to lunge a horse with protective boots.
(You cannot ride a horse with protective boots)
- 5. Caveson's are optional with western attire country pleasure classes, easy gait, and local pleasure classes. All other pleasure classes stay the same.